

We review advances in the L^p -theory of quasiconformal mappings in the plane. The main theme is interpolation of the Beltrami equation in three different (but certainly related) contexts.