

Measures on product and stochastic independence

Roman Frič

Mathematical Institute of the Slovak Academy of Sciences, Košice, Slovakia

Abstract. Our aim is to discuss probability measures (and probability integrals) on product and how is it related to stochastic dependence/independence. Simple commutative triangle diagrams of observables make the topic transparent.