A generalization of Hale-Silkowski Criterion

Felipe Gonçalves Netto

In this talk, we aim to present the Hale–Silkowski criterion for strong stability, originally formulated for the difference equations in continuous time with finitely many delays, and to discuss its generalization to a more general class of linear difference equations in continuous time.